Féile Éalaíon & Cheoil Music & Arts Festival

27 Aibreán - 1 Bealtaine

27 April - 1st May

Fáilte

Is í ról na n-ealaíin ná muid a thabhairt amach as ár ngnáth-shaolta, macnamh a spreagadh agus athbhrethnú le cabhair ón Ealaíontóir. In a changing and threatened world Féile na Bealtaine returns to give respite, provoke reflection, maybe action, and bring fun and frivolity to our community. Цей громадський фестиваль мистецтв хоче, щоб усі зібралися разом, щоб насолоджуватися та досліджувати нові культури. нам усім потрібна перерва від турбот!

Many of our contributors dwell on responses to the spiralling crisis in our natural environment. From Paul Kingsnorth who spawned a movement on this topic, to Eoghan Dalton who has nurtured a rain-forest in response. In ionad an Mór-shiúil mar a bhí, beidh Máthair na hAthchúrsála. This procession, which replaces the much loved parade of old, of a wheeled sculpture made of our own recycled bottles, will ask the whole community to take part by providing bottles, and help over the weekend in making it. Bígí páirteach leis! Or come with your own recycled costumes!

Sa mhéid gur féidir linn déanfaimis iarracht cur leis ár dTípeallacht. Use our excellent local link bus where possible (we have indicated those out of town events that are served by it). Share lifts, bring your own keepcup, buy less stuff, dance more! Labhraimis ár dTeanga Dúchasach sa mhéid gur féidir linn. Please use any cúpla focal you have, take the opportunity to learn a few more, or even dip into some Ukrainian! Фестиваль відбувається англійською та ірландською мовами, але, будь ласка, не соромтеся поділитися з нами своєю українською!

Tickets and Festival Pass

Tickets for all paid events are available at www.feilenabealtaine.ie as are further details and links for many events.

Festival Pas is available for €125 on the website or from the office, it entitles access to all events (except yoga events), but please book tickets in advance even if you have a pass.

Buíochas

Tá an fhéile faoi chomaoín ag gach éinne a chabhraíonn linn i rith na bliana. Leis an Díseart as úsáid na h-oifige, as na gnóanna go léir agus na scoileanna a scaoileann isteach an gliondar agus an amadaíocht!

Caoimhín Ó Raghallaigh agus Cormac Begley

Séipéilín an Dísirt / Díseart Chapel

Friday/Dé hAoine, 7 p.m.

Beirt ceoltóir atá mar mháistir ar uirlisí thar an gcoitiantacht.

A theoretical physicist by training, Caoimhín Ó Raghallaigh makes music on a 10-stringed hardanger d'amore and explores the region where traditional music begins to disintegrate. Caoimhín performs as a solo artist, yet is also widely known through his collaborative work, including groups The Gloaming and This is How we Fly. He has also performed with artists such as Laurie Anderson, Vincent Moon and Amiina. He has made music for theatre and film, including music for the Oscar-nominated movie Brooklyn and Volker Schlöndorff's Return to Montauk.

Is ceoltóir den chéad scoth é Cormac Begley ó Chiarraí Thiar who plays 13 different concertinas. Cormac was awarded Instrumentalist of the Year at the RTE Folk Awards and his latest solo album, entitled 'B', was awarded the Irish Times Album of the Year in 2022. This album is central to both the award-winning show Mám (directed by Micheal Keegan Dolan) and to Pat Collins' film, The Dance.

€12 KIDS FREE - Saor In Aisce

'Heartstopping' Irish Times

Described as "one of Ireland's most exceptional musicians" by the Irish Times, I Have A Tribe is the musical home for Patrick O'Laoghaire. Having guested with CARM to open for Bon Iver in Wembley, supported Villagers, Lisa Hannigan and Saint Sister. 'His work has an organic, three-dimensional quality that lends it a rarely found sincerity; his songs are, at times, fragile ... then it expands, careering forward and unfolding an unforeseen energy.'

The Half Room

St James' Church/ Séipéal Naomh Séamus

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 3 p.m.

€16

Featuring Dingle native and world-renowned singer Pauline Scanlon, Nicola Joyce of The Whileaways and musicians Fabian Joyce and Eoin Wynne, this is a unique union of kindred spirits in song. These four singers and musicians came together out of an honest yearning to share a deep love of singing. Enchanting harmonies and delicate yet intricate accompaniment marks a collection of songs that moves with ease between the ancient and the contemporary

Seo seans iontach na hamhráin draíochtúil ón albam nua a chloisteáil don chéad uair ag Féile na Bealtaine. Eiseofar an t-albam, atá taifeadta sa Daingean ag Donogh Hennessy, níos déanaí sa samhradh

Engegård Quartet

St James' Church/ Séipéal Naomh Séamus

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 6 p.m.

Fáilte thar n-ais chuig cairde buan na féile ón Ioruaidh.

Formed under the midnight sun in Lofoten in 2006, the Engegård Quartet has rapidly become one of Norway's most sought after string ensembles. Their bold, fresh interpretations of the classical repertoire combined with a deep attachment to their Scandinavian roots has attracted international acclaim, and inspired some innovative partnerships and programming. The quartet play a programme including Grieg, Barbet and Schubert's "Death and the Maiden".

SELK

The Green Room (above John Benny's Pub)

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 6 p.m.

€16

SELK released their debut album Beast in 2016, described by Hot Press as 'an atmospheric, evocative, and at times, sinister collection. Beast is wellworth grappling with.' SELK followed the album with single Moments featuring a collaboration with Oscar nominated composer Javier Navarrete (Pan's Labyrinth), followed by Silent Sea in May 2020 on which Javier also collaborated. Anna Jordan's angelic, almost spoken word vocal utterances is a starry-eyed track that belongs in an Oscar-nominated indie movie.

Caolan Ryan and Rian O'Sullivan

Holyground

Saor in aisce/Free event

Local DJs Caolan Ryan and Rian O Sullivan performing a DJ set inspired by artists such as FredAgain and Mall Grab and the genres house, tech house and more .

The Fada's

Murphy's Bar - Brandon

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 3-6 p.m.

Saor in aisce/Free event

The FADAS are a group of seven music friends based in West Limerick. Their influences are predominantly from the bands that gave traditional music a huge revival in the 70s and 80s including bands and individual musicians such as the Chieftains, Planxty, The Bothy Band, De Danann, Stocktons Wing and The Waterboys, just to mention a few.

Ursidae

McCarthy's Bar

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 7 p.m.

€12

Ursidae return with their fighter-pilot approach, bringing to the stage a smoking barrel mix of folk rock and lyrical thought-provoking humour. Ag meascadh buillí ísle ó fear áitiúil na ndrumaí Oisín Ó hEartáin, le liricí domhanda agus guitar gáitsiúil ó Dónal Túipéar, le dord-ghuitar an draoi Marcas Mac Donncha agus fiddle fuinneamhúil ó Enda Ó Lorcáin – ag tarraingt ó cheithre cúinne na tíre, geallann an ceathrar seo cumhacht na gréine a tharraingt isteach chun sibh a spreagadh ó oíche go maidin

Anna Mieke

St James' Church/ Séipéal Naomh Séamus

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 8.30 p.m.

€22

Anna Mieke's deft songwriting and enveloping compositions have asserted her as a vital voice amongst Ireland's alt-folk genre. The Irish multi-instrumentalist and songwriter treads a line between folk forms and vivid dreamscapes, drawing on traditional and contemporary motifs. The lyrically ornate and instrumental delicacy of her work, alongside flowing atmospheric arrangements, contributes a challenging, emphatic and new voice to alt-folk. Le 'Idle Mind' bhí sí ainmnithe mar 'Best Emerging Act' ag na RTÉ Folk Awards. Tháinig a dara albam Theatre, amach i 2022.

Club na Féile: DJ Sally Cinnamon

Dick Mack's Yard

Saturday/Dé Sathairn, 9.30 p.m.

Saor in aisce/Free event

As the self-professed Lady Mayoress of Dublin in Waiting, Sally Foran is a bird with many ideas and high ideals. As a live DJ she has shifted people from seats to dance floors all over Ireland since 2001, with countless slots at all of Ireland's best festivals and club nights across the country. Sally Cinnamon most surely is a spinner of both classic yarns & diamond vinyl gems. She makes you want to put on your red shoes and dance the blues or perhaps even the night itself away. Either way, it's infectious, contagious and very often glorious.

DJ Evan Boyle at Báinín cafe

Annascaul

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 9.30a.m.- 3 p.m.

Saor in aisce/Free event

Evan Boyle has been spinning vinyl and throwing parties in Ireland for over a decade. With sets at Electric Picnic, Body & Soul and Another Love Story, along with trips to London, he has gained a reputation for his energy-fuelled, house-party style sets.

Beauty Concert - Cormac Begley & Ye Vagabonds

An Díseart (Gairdíní)

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 12.30 p.m.

€25 Kids Free- Saor in aisce

Ye Vagabonds brothers – Brían and Diarmuid Mac Gloinn – are fast earning a ticket on the legend bus. They have a trademark close harmony singing, lean and tasty accompaniment and the rare ability to tell a good story in song. Weaving seamlessly between traditional and contemporary songs and tunes, this spellbinding trio will remind us just how precious live music is.

Acclaimed concertina player Cormac Begley from West Kerry, plays 13 concertinas. His latest solo album, entitled 'B', was awarded the Irish Times Album of the Year in 2022

A hot ticket gig!

Sing Along Social

Dick Mack's Yard

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 2 p.m.

Saor in aisce/Free event

Is cóir gan aon dualgas é an Sing Along Social le haghaidh daoine nach bhfuil in ann canadh agus curtha i láthair ag The Craic Mechanics.

The Sing Along Social is hosted by The Craic Mechanics. It's our job to help loosen you up to help you connect to your inner craic. Our tools are cheesy pop music, glitter, and sheer unbridled silliness. Fáilte agus fiche roimh chách!

Pa Sheehy

St James' Church/Séipéal Naomh Séamus

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 4 p.m.

€18

Following on from his sold out EU Tour and No.1 EP The Art of Disappearing, Dingle native Pa Sheehy has announced new music is on the horizon. He has spent the last year diving into a 'new world of sound' and just off the back of his Other Voices solo debut he has set his sights on a big winter tour and the release of a number of works he penned in 2022. "Cúis áthais dom mo chuid ceoil nua a roinnt libh i mbliana. Thóg sé bliain go leith uaim iad a ullmhú ach beidh an chéad amhrán. Meet me at the Record Store ag teacht amach ar an 21ú Lá d'Aibreán."

Pinhole

McCarthy's Bar

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 5.30 p.m.

€12

Pinhole are a quirky Dingle/Cork-based band skating over genre boundaries with the result that they stand alone in their unique sound. Their first EP Between the Babies and the Birds received extensive radio play and they have appeared on Other Voices. Their tangential approach to song writing has been equated to being 'in a dark fairytale'. From delicate melodies to raw mayhem, they take you on a roller coaster journey of the senses.

Tagann Ciara O'Flynn agus Mark Mc Loughlin le chéile sa ghrúpa Pinhole le fuaime uaithúil agus cruthaitheach.

Hamsandwich

St James' Church/ Séipéal Naomh Séamus

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 7 p.m.

€22

Following the release of their brand-new album Magnify, Irish indie-rock darlings Hamsandwich return to Feile na Bealtaine for an acoustic three-piece show in St James' Church. One of the most enthralling live acts in recent times, Hamsandwich are well known for their incendiary live performances which has put them right at the top of the live acts to see today. Ar ceann des na seoanna beo is fearr in Eirinn inniu, this is a night not to be missed!

Séamus Begley (1949 - 2023)

An Síbín sa Spéir

St Mary's Church

Sunday/Dé Domhnaigh, 7 p.m.

€22

Ceolchoirm in Ómós do Shéamus Begley.

A concert to celebrate the life of the remarkable musician, singer and much-loved West Kerry native Séamus Begley.

Clann Shéamuís - Eoin and Níall Ó Beaglaoich and their sister Méabh Ní Bheaglaoich are a traditional music group playing accordion, concertina and singing. They are deeply rooted within the Irish traditional culture of music, song and dance of West Kerry. Taistlíonn siad ar fud an domhain ag seimint agus ag tabhairt cultúr na hÉireann go tíortha eile. Beidh an triúr acu chomh maith lena deartháir Breannán agus a máthair Máire ar stáitse in omós do Shéamus.

Lumière - Two distinct voices cut from the same geographic cloth, Éilís Kennedy and Pauline Scanlon have toured their distinctive sound from the cosy snugs of their native Dingle to international concert halls including Carnegie Hall in New York and The Barbican in London.

Sníomhann said scéalta le comhcheól thuisceanach, bríomhar, doimhin, le mothúcháin a théann i bhfeidhim ar gach éisteóir. Tar éis deich mbliana no níos mó tá áthas orthu a bheith i mbun ceóil ar an mbóthar arís i 2023. Beidh tionlacan acu ó mháistir an ghiotáir, Donogh Hennessy.

Muireann Nic Amhlaoibh i dteannta le Dónal O'Connor and Gerry O'Beirne. A leading exponent of the sean nós style, her repertoire also includes songs from a wide variety of folk and contemporary sources. Is láithreoir teilifíse agus raidió í Muireann do leithéidí RTÉ 1, TG4, RTÉ Radio 1, RTÉ RnaG agus BBC Alba.
